

March Migration Madness

McCormick's Creek State Park Nature Center
Mini-Seminar Series/ Family Program

They don't need a passport or a visa, these animals move freely between one place and another in search of food and water during the winter.

--Where: McCormick's Creek S.P. Nature Center

--When: Saturday, March 10, 2007

--Fee: Full-day $5/adult, $2/child

Half-day $3/adult, $1/child

--Pre-register by Wednesday, March 7- 4:00 p.m.

Call the Park Office at 812-829-2235.

Light refreshments, materials, and
Take-home craft provided.

Morning Session- 9:30 a.m.- 12 noon

- Sounds of Spring- Early Bird Walk
- Coffee and Songbird Connection- presentation and discussion about songbirds and their wintering habitat. How the #1 breakfast beverage fits into the picture.
- Tiny Hummers: the Ruby-throated Hummingbird

Break- 1 hour for lunch- Bring your own sack lunch, or buy lunch at the Canyon Inn at McCormick's Creek State Park, or in the town of Spencer (about 2 miles west of the park).

Afternoon Session- 1:00 p.m.- 3:30 p.m.

- The Amazing Monarch Migration- one of the few insects to make a full migration.
- Reptiles: "Turtle Flew South" story starts a discussion about hibernating dens and reptiles in winter.
- Games and activities that everyone will enjoy.